Sunday school at noon. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject, Mediterranean Memories and Messages. At the close of the morning service meetings are called of the Men's Club, Ladies Aid Society, Sorority and the Epworth League and the Sunday School Board is to meet after Sunday school. These meetings are all to arrange for the next church is to take in the Welcome Home celebration on the 16th.

At the South Coventry Methodist church, the Sunday school is held at 11:45 and the preaching service at 12:45. Sermon subject, World Harmony Perpetuity.

At the First Baptist church the service will be in charge of Rev. G. C. S. Mackay of Putnam.

The Christian Science service is held in the Woman's Club room on Sunday morning at 10:45. Subject, the lesson sermon, Spirit, Golden text, II Corinthians 3:17. Responsive reading Galatians 3:2-10.

Although the railroad strikers are still at work at the local yards, the city is having the fact that there is a railroad strike on brought home to it. The four express trains which pass through here daily were stopped of the schedule, together with two accommodation trains, at the first block of the curfew. Railroad men here had nothing definite to say regarding how much further the curfew of the service was. The local express office got orders Friday morning to retire from business so far as receiving and expressing means was concerned. They will handle only transfer express which is thrust upon them and will express means forwarded. Although the strike here has so far been confined to the New York, New Haven and Hartford and has not hit the Central Vermont, no express will be received here for points south along that road. The local office has averaged about thirty truckloads of express a day. Postmaster O'Rourke was of the opinion that the curfew of train service would mean but small delay in mail service as far as Willimantic is concerned. He pointed out that all mail except what is known as closed sack stuff is handled by the R. P. O. clerks and for this reason it often happens that mail bound for a starting point means than delivery. He said that mail received at the local office Sunday afternoon for South Windham, only three miles away, was sent New Haven and back by way of New London and by this route reached its destination several days sooner than if sent direct from the local office through the usual channels. The American Express company is shipping about three carloads of freight a day and considerable express matter besides. It is not known what steps the management will take to move this output. The Windham Silk company, which is reported to have about $5,000 worth of finished goods on hand, is to use auto-trucks. News-dealers here who carry out of town papers have been hit rather hard. Metropolitan papers are from two to three hours later than usual in getting here and some delay at arrival. The Hartford papers were brought across the state Friday afternoon by jitney. Naturally the public service lines between here and Hartford did not stop office business all through the day. The trains which were suspended until further notice were sent leaving here at 10:04 a. m. and p. m., west bound, and 12:24 p. m. and 6:33 p. m. east bound. The accommodation train leaving here at 11:35 a. m. and 3 p. m. over the Air Line have also been dropped. The passenger train due here from Poughkeepsie at 3:22 p. m. was set back so that it ran on the schedule of the New York and H. H. are running. For Boston, 5:20 a. m., 2:45 p. m. and 6:26 p. m. for Hartford, 7:10 a. m., 11:23 a. m. and 8:16 p. m. for Providence, 6:14 a. m., 12:10 a. m. and 10 p. m. There has been no cut in the service on the Central Vermont.

Charles Howard Tryon was united in marriage with Miss Dorothy Isabelle Buell, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, at Andover by Rev. Edward C. Champe of Gilead. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton W. Buell of Gilead and was given in marriage by her father. The groom is the son of Mrs. Margaret R. Tryon of Manchester and is manager of a large farm there. A modified form of the Episcopal service was used, the ceremony being performed in front of a bank of laurel and ferns beneath an arch of goldrod. The house was decorated with greens and flowers. After the ceremony luncheon was served and Mr. and Mrs. Tryon left for an automobile trip through the White Mountains after which they will return to Manchester. Guests were present from Waterbury, Hartford, Manchester, Wallingford and Gilead.

Someone has got to pay for a new window in a North street market. Just who it will be seems to be a case where the wisdom of a Solomon would be very useful in deciding. Lawrence Jacobs was driving the automobile owned by Dr. R. C. White down North street when a wheel of the automobile in passing over a stone in the road, split it and caused one of the pieces to bound against the sidewalk and then course on through the window. Now does the city pay because it is responsible for the stone being there or is the auto driver the one to settle, or does the store keeper have to charge up a new window to his incident?

Another round of vacations started at the local postoffice this (Saturday) morning. Carriers Clarence C. Palmer and Clarence O. Barrows return this morning while Carriers George Arnold, Dwight Lee and Edward Lyman are off duty for fifteen days. Assistant Postmaster George H. Spencer also starts his vacation this morning. Owing to the fact that Substitute Carrier Joseph C. Paulinus has been discharged from the navy and has returned to his duties here three carriers have been allowed to go off instead of two as formerly.

The demolition of the service flag of the Methodist Episcopal church here will take place Sunday morning, Aug. 17. With one exception all the boys who enlisted are at home and that one is in this state, still in service. An effort is being made to secure the attendance of all these young men and their parents at the impressive service which will be held.

The Girls' Friendly Society of St. Paul's church, recently held its annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Fannie Dixon-Weich on Columbia lake. Both luncheon and afternoon tea were served on the lawn. About twenty-five were present besides a number of cottagers who are branch associates.

The police have received a bulletin from the state automobile setting forth the law as regards the carrying of license cards. There has been considerable confusion lately over the fact that "foreign" cars come into the state and when they do the drivers do not have operators' licenses. The bulletin points out that some states do not require an operator's license and that the state law allows cars from such states to be operated here for thirty days. However, all Connecticut cars must be in charge of a licensed operator of motor vehicles.

Frank McDonough, recently discharged from the navy, has been ordered a reception at his home at 223 Jackson street Thursday evening by about forty friends. The reception, which came as a total surprise to McDonough took the form of a lawn party. The lawn was decorated with electric lights and Chinese lanterns. A collation on the lawn was followed by dancing.
